- Treasurer's Update

Mr. Hutchinson reported that he is meeting individually with school district Treasurers to review ESCCO services and discuss shared service opportunities. He also reported that the Payroll Department is being revamped to include a system for entering time direct and absences online.

Mr. Hutchinson reported that there is no update available regarding the CDMU lawsuit. Mediation has been scheduled for February 18, 2011. He also reported that CDMU is undergoing a strategic planning process. Mr. Hutchinson will be reviewing the CDMU and ESCCO's self-funded health care plan costs to determine which will be the best for ESCCO staff in the future.

Mr. Hutchinson informed board members that the wellness program provided to staff members brings the ESCCO in compliance with the School Employees Health Board.

- Superintendent's Update

Dr. Anderson distributed a draft of the Educational Service Center of Central Ohio's analysis of current education policy issues facing the State of Ohio. This document will be reviewed in detail with Governing Board members at the special meeting/work session scheduled for January 28, 2011. In addition, an informal hearing regarding the non-renewal of South Scioto Academy's community school sponsorship will also take place at January 28, 2011 special board meeting.

Dr. Anderson informed the Governing Board that Dr. Marvenia Bosley has been hired by the ESC of Central Ohio to serve in the position of Interim Superintendent for two weeks at the Columbus Academy of Literacy and Mathematics community school during the investigation of alleged corrupt activity by a CALM board member.

Dr. Anderson informed board members that Dr. Robert Sommers has been selected by Governor Kasich to serve as his education advisor.
