

Become a Better Instructional Coach

A Free, 4-Part Instructional Coaching Series from the Center for Achievement and Leadership at the ESC of Central Ohio

Back by popular demand! Due to continued interest, we are delighted to re-offer our Instructional Coaching Series once again. This 4-part series is designed to provide and support instructional coaching skills in working with adult educators, as well as create a professional, collaborative learning community for instructional coaches themselves. This series will support the unique needs of both new to the coaching role and those experienced with instructional coaching. This series will provide opportunities for coaches to develop and refine their practice, monitor their effectiveness, and create a network of support throughout the Central Ohio community. Please note this is the same content as the 21-22 Instructional Coaching Series.*

1-4 p.m. | In Person
ESC of Central Ohio
2080 Citygate Dr. Columbus, OH 43219

SESSION 1	SESSION 2	SESSION 3	SESSION 4
Thursday, September 29, 2022	Tuesday, October 27, 2022	Thursday, November 10, 2022	Thursday, December 1, 2022

Over four sessions, we'll discuss topics that cover:

- Relationship building and adult learning
- Coaching conversations/questioning stems
- Instructional context for student success (e.g., use of high-quality assessments and high-quality instructional materials, learning environments, and digital learning tools)
- Role of data and tools for success and monitoring
- Essential elements in literacy/numeracy coaching that impact student learning

NO COST TO ESC MEMBER DISTRICTS
PARTICIPANTS GET A FREE BOOK

If space is available, ESC non-member districts may participate for a fee.

SAVE YOUR SPOT