

One-on-One Mathematics and Literacy Instructional Support Summer Office Hours

Do you need help with lesson or unit planning? Curious about standards-alignment in your current lesson plans? Need a thought partner to explore a topic in your discipline or to think through a student profile?

Mathematics specialist Matt Fannon and Literacy specialist Rachel Lang Daniels offer cost-free, open office hours for collaboration with teachers, coaches, and instructional leaders. As you consider the upcoming school year, schedule up to two time slots for collaboration.

Click here to book your appointment today!

- Mathematics Instructional Support
- Literacy Instructional Support

Mathematics Office Hours Beginning May 12, 2022

This is an opportunity to:

- Evaluate current lesson plans and curriculum maps.
- Explore best practices, new strategies, and routines to incorporate into mathematics instruction.
- Discuss the role of data in planning (differentiation, grouping, etc.)
- Prioritize Mathematical Standards for grades 6 - 12 and develop a curriculum map.
- Develop a better understanding of mathematical topics/concepts (need a refresher or teaching a new math course)
- Collaborate with the math specialist on a topic of your choice.

Proposed dates and times:

Tuesdays and Thursdays 9 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. in 30 minute increments. Use the link above to set a meeting time.

Literacy Across the Disciplines Office Hours Beginning June 21, 2022

This is an opportunity to:

- Evaluate current lesson/unit plans and look for opportunities for improvement.
- Explore the 6-12 Literacy Standards for History/SS, Science and Mathematics to elevate the literacy practices in a current lesson/unit.
- Discuss the role literacy plays across the disciplines. What should it look like in your unique setting?
- Search a bank of instructional routines and match them with the intended learning outcomes for a lesson or unit.
- Review the importance of and plan implementation of reading, writing and discourse in your class.
- Collaborate with the literacy specialist on a topic of your choice.

Proposed dates and times:

Tuesdays and Thursdays 9 a.m. - 12 p.m. in 30 minute increments. Use the link above to set a meeting time.