Items for the Board's Information and Review

Governing Board Members' Update

Eastland-Fairfield Career & Technical Schools

Mrs. Galbraith reported that slides of classroom and lab activities were presented at the recent EFCTS Board meeting. In-person classes and labs are underway with no major issues.

Delaware Area Career Center

Mr. Bischoff informed Board members that the Ohio School Boards Association has been selected to conduct the Superintendent search for DACC. Discussion returning more students back into the classrooms took place at the recent DACC Board meeting. The return date may be pushed back due to the increase in the number of COVID-19 cases in Delaware County.

Treasurer's Update

Mr. Varda reported that the Internal Revenue Service has notified the ESCCO that the ESC Council of Governments has been selected for an audit. The audit will cover the calendar year 2018 that will include partial periods of two fiscal years. Mr. Varda assured Board members that the ESCCO has policies and procedures in place to meet IRS rules/regulations. Mr. Weaver will be working with the IRS during the audit procedure to provide information on how the ESC COG works in conjunction with the ESCCO.

Mr. Varda informed Board members he is looking forward to working with the ESCCO's new Data Systems Coordinator, Michael Schneider, on projects to improve infrastructure and software.

Mr. Varda also informed Board members that his department has been busy working with the Auditor of State's Office and our attorneys regarding how the CARES Act funds received from the City of Columbus, Franklin County Board of Commissioner and corporate donations can be used for the Central Ohio Broadband Access Program.

Ohio Healthcare Consortium Update

Mr. Varda reported that the state-wide meeting was held yesterday. The ESCCO Consortium continues to do very well and was the only one in the State of Ohio that did not increase premiums for calendar year 2021. Discussion regarding Pickaway County Educational Service Center's interest to join our consortium will be discussed at the next meeting.

Superintendent's Update

Dr. Goodney informed Board members that the ESC of Central Ohio's Business Advisory Council held their first meeting of the school year on October 21st and reported that Christine Galvin, ESCCO Director of College and Career Success, did an outstanding job coordinating the meeting and providing an excellent program on workforce trends.

Dr. Goodney reported that the ESCCO was contacted by the Franklin County Board of Commissioners and the President of the Columbus City Council seeking assistance and resources to provide a larger conversation and training in the area of race relations for school board members and business leaders. Dr. Goodney also informed Board members that this month's Central Ohio Compact, co-hosted by Columbus State Community College and the ESC of Central Ohio, is focused on a series of presentations on equity and inclusive practices.

Dr. Goodney informed Board members that he has selected Dr. Wade Lucas, ESCCO Client Services Representative, to lead the effort on the use of CARE funds. These funds can be used through 2022.

Dr. Goodney reported that he has recently been meeting with several State legislative leaders to introduce them to the work the ESCCO has been doing to assist school districts during the pandemic.

Dr. Goodney discussed the value of having in-house legal counsel in the past to assist with Human Resources related issues. The Board approved the engagement of the Pollock Law Firm for legal services at today's Board meeting.
