Specialized On-Site Support (SOS) Team Building Educator Capacity to Improve Outcomes for All Learners

Specialized On-Site/Online Support Team:

Building Your Capacity to Improve Outcomes for All Learners

The ESC of Central Ohio's Specialized On-Site Support (SOS) Team provides customized, job-embedded coaching and/or workshops that fit your district, school, team, or individual needs.

The SOS Team of experts has one common mission: to build your professional capacity to improve outcomes for all learners using a multi-disciplinary approach. The team provides support in a variety of areas, including:

Mental Health

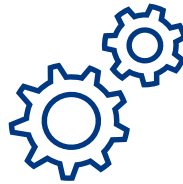

Behavior Intervention

Family/Community Engagement

English Learners

Administrative Support

Diverse Learners

Any topic can be customized to meet your needs.

Contact bryant.tela@escoco.org to discuss how the SOS Team can help your district.

Meet the SOS Team

Bryant Tela

Bryant is the SOS Team Behavior Intervention/Mental Health Consultant. He has an MSE in Educational Leadership and a MSW in Social Work with a concentration in School Social Work. Bryant is a Master Level CPI instructor with specialization in the areas of autism, verbal/nonverbal communication, and trauma. Bryant has more than 20 years of experience in mental health work in the school setting.

Bryant will work with your team in the application of PBIS, Restorative Practices, team development, mental health, and behavior intervention approaches.

Kate Wallace

Kate is the SOS Team Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA, COBA) for both general and special education. She has a bachelor's degree in Speech and Hearing Sciences as well as a master of education in Special Education. Kate uses Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) techniques to support clients, their educators, and their families.

Kate supports educators in identifying behavioral factors in their classrooms. She also works with educators to develop support systems in order to promote success of all learners in the classroom.

Dr. Sean Ross

Sean is the SOS Team Administrative Coach/Consultant. Sean earned a Ph.D. in Leadership and Administration and is currently a licensed educator, an adjunct faculty member of Ashland University, and the COO of a consulting firm.

Sean works with districts to align leadership and implement a strategic focus to improve the entire school community. Sean's approach often leads to increases in academics and decreases in "challenging" behaviors.

Neeley Keys, LISW-S

Neeley is the SOS Team Mental Health Specialist for both general and special education. She has a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice, a master's degree in Social Work, and has spent nearly 20 years in the mental health arena working in schools.

Neeley works with educators by sharing her knowledge on trauma, mental health support, Restorative Practices, re-entry protocol, and more. Her coaching can be customized to meet your specific needs across a variety of mental health topics.

Meet the SOS Team

Jill Kramer

Jill is the SOS Team English Learner Specialist. She assists districts and staff who support English Learners. Jill has master's degrees in TESOL and Educational Leadership, with teaching licensure in K-8, TESOL, Teacher Leader, and a Principal license. As a long-time EL teacher, Jill brings many years of experience to districts.

Jill works with districts to set up, review, and evaluate English Learner programs. EL Services also include professional learning in district, embedded coaching for EL and content-area teachers, and assistance with resources. PD topics include working with newcomers, ELs with limited formal education, identifying ELs with disabilities, vocabulary development, and family engagement.

Andrea Summers

Andrea is the SOS Team Family and Community Partnership Liaison. She has a master's degree in Nonprofit Management with a concentration on Education Policy from The New School in New York City. She earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology/Anthropology with a focus on Education from Antioch College. Andrea has more than 20 years' experience as an educator and administrator in Out-of-School Time and co-curricular learning programs.

Andrea guides districts in implementing effective parent engagement and community partnership strategies that serve all youth but specifically the community most vulnerable populations. Her approach centers on providing social-emotional learning for both adults and students.

David Wegner

David is the SOS Team Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA, COBA) for both general and special education. He has a bachelor's degree in Psychology as well as a master of science in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA). David uses ABA to train families and educators while working in school, clinical, and residential settings.

David assists educators in identifying classroom factors that may impact behavior and student skill acquisition. He will partner with you to design student and family support systems, as well as create a positive learning environment to promote and monitor student success and growth.

Customizable Services

We're excited for the opportunity to work with your school and staff to build capacity. We're proud to offer your team embedded coaching, one-on-one training, consultation, and customized services focused on mental health, behavior intervention, family/community engagement, English learners, administrative support, and diverse learners.

Our services are not the typical "sit-and-get" professional development opportunities. Team members will assist in determining needs, visit and observe classrooms and teacher and provide recommendations and coaching. Review our current service areas and contact us if you need these or other services. Our goal is to address specific challenges.
