December	If the public district chooses to participate in the Community Eligible Provision, the nonpublic school Service amounts will be generated based on the comparable measure of poverty.

The public district shares with the nonpublic school official which “Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) measure of Poverty” was chosen:

1. District uses Community Eligible Provision reimbursement rate using the nonpublic free and reduced student count; or
2. District uses Community Eligibility Provision identified student percentage, which includes direct certification, migrant, homeless, head start and foster children using nonpublic free lunch student count.

Regardless of the nonpublic school participation in Community Eligibility Provision, the nonpublic school must participate using a comparable measure of poverty. The public district consults with the nonpublic school officials to explain which option was chosen.
